

ODA LEARNING SERIES 2020

Webinar #1: Development Cooperation in/post COVID era

Thursday, 27 August 2020, 11.00 - 12.00 Istanbul time

Register here for the webinar

“ SPEAKERS:

Stephan Klingebiel

Dr. Stephan Klingebiel is Director of UNDP Seoul Policy Centre. Before joining the Centre, he served as the Chair of the International and Transnational Cooperation research programme at the German Development Institute (Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik/DIE). He is Senior Lecturer at the University of Marburg, and has been a regular Visiting Professor at Stanford University, a visiting scholar at the Center on Democracy, Development, and the Rule of Law (CDDRL) at Stanford University, and guest researcher at the College of Humanities and Development Studies at the China Agricultural University (CAU) in Beijing.

Ana Fernandes

Ms. Ana Fernandes is Head of the Foresight Outreach and policy Reform Unit, coordinating the work of the OECD Development Co operation Directorate on Foresight, Policy reform and the policy dialogue with non-DAC members, including on triangular cooperation, and with civil society organizations. She previously held senior positions as Portuguese Representative to the OECD, as Vice Chair of the Development Assistance Committee and as Co-Chair of the Advisory Group on Investment and Development. Prior to joining the OECD, she was senior adviser to the Portuguese Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and Development cooperation. Ana is also National Strategic Counsellor to Aga Khan Foundation and is invited by several universities as invited lecturer on International Relations and Development Studies. Earlier in her career, Ana also worked for IMVF coordinating projects in Timor-Leste, Cabo Verde, Guinea-Bissau and Brazil.

Sung-Il Son

Sung-Il Son, is the Director of the Program Strategy and Policy Planning Team, Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA). He joined KOICA in 2004 and recently finished serving as director of KOICA Uzbekistan Office.

“ ABOUT THE EVENT:

The unprecedented health and socio-economic crises are expected to aggravate existing development challenges. At the opening webinar of this year's ODA Learning Series, co-organized by UNDP and OECD, we will:

- Explore ideas on what the future of development cooperation could look like;
- Analyze trends in international development cooperation in light of the COVID-19 pandemic;
- Discuss how development practitioners help countries respond to COVID-19 through the example of the Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA);
- Share experiences among new and emerging donors in the ECA region.

The weekly webinars of the ODA Learning Series 2020 are complemented by a virtual community of practice for development practitioners in Europe and Central Asia. Join the Community on SparkBlue, submit your questions, contribute to the discussions and get updates on future events.

Register here for the webinar

